

SUBSCRIBER MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

Thank you for your interest in the Australian Sustainable Business Group (ASBG). This document will take you through the benefits of becoming an ASBG subscriber member.

A subscriber member is the company, so one person taking the initiative and signing up as a subscriber benefits the whole company.

ASBG, specialises with environmental information today, positioning you for tomorrow. Up to date information for managers of environmental risks to know what the trends are to remain legally compliant.

The ASBG subscription will provide your organisation with:

- SUSTAINABLE BUSINESS WEEKLY - A weekly snapshot of the latest information on a range of environment and energy issues, customised to the areas of interest to business, including:
 - Changes to Federal and State regulations
 - Government initiatives and assistance programs;
 - Evidence based trends in Best Practices on environment and energy management
 - Industry case studies on environment and energy activities
 - All past editions are available to our members on our website via a password protected area
- Topical seminars and workshop events, with a 20% discount for members. A list of our current list of seminars is available via our website at www.asbg.net.au
- Tailor made in house training programs for audiences from the shop floor to board level. Topics cover environmental awareness, waste management and classification, dangerous goods etc.
- Environment, chemicals and energy consultancy Services which cover a broad range of topics including:
 - Pollution Incident Response Management Plan training and testing services
 - Dangerous Goods and GHS in house audits and training on storage and handling
 - Environmental training, from awareness to director level environmental management
 - Waste management including both solid and liquid and industrial wastewater treatment
- ASBG's Policy Reference Group: An opportunity to influence the regulators through the development of policies and submissions. Past submissions are also available on our website.
- ASBG lobbying support: ASBG has direct access to senior EPA and ministerial level staff. Major issues affecting your company can be solvable at the policy level of Government.
- Present at ASBG's conferences – members get preferential treatment if they wish to present at our events.

If you wish to subscribe, please refer to the Subscription form on the back of the attached brochure. If you have any questions or comments regarding the ASBG please call me on 02 9453 3348 or email on andrew@asbg.net.au. I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely
