

NSW ENVIRONMENTAL INCIDENT CONFERENCE

Brought to you by

Sponsored by

WEDNESDAY, 5 DECEMBER 2012 L10, 44 MARTIN PLACE, SYDNEY

This is a follow up conference to cover the key NSW environmental legislative changes over the last year. It will discuss how they are implemented and what the steps are and what new changes are coming. Key areas to be discussed include:

- ✓ Immediate Reporting of Pollution Incidents (IRPI) to five government agencies – possible modifications to streamline this requirement
- ✓ Publication of Monitoring Data (PMD) prominently on environmental licence holders websites — additional flexibility arrangements and compliance follow up
- ✓ Pollution Incident Response Management Plans (PIRMP) preparation, testing and implementation — what are typical gaps, compliance auditing and testing and training on PIRMPs
- ✓ Implementation and policing of these and possible future changes

The conference will contain a number of views to assist you in improving your compliance including:

- ✓ The Environment Protection Authority (EPA) will provide an update on their program to implement police and modify the new requirements
- ✓ Sydney Water, who have introduced the most significant change to its Trade Waste Policy since it waste introduced in 1988
- ✓ Legal views on the new legislative requirements
- ✓ Views from consultants involved in preparation of PMD and PIRMPs
- ✓ Advice from corporate environment managers in implementing these issues
- ✓ ASBG who has been involved in the negotiation of the above issues which has lead more flexible arrangements and how you can take advantage of them
